Describe How the Program Supports Family Connections

All programs are focused on family reunification and family system process. Intent is to build a system for each client that will allow them to foster family relationships that are healthy and stable.

Special Interventions Available Internally

Individual, family and group therapy are available for clients, foster parents, and members of the natural family. Services are provided in home, and clinicians are on-call to address clinical needs as they arise.

Description of how the program exceeds licensure ratios
